ORDER

On this day, the Court sua sponte considered the above-captioned case. On January 18, 2023, the parties' mediator informed the Court that they reached an agreement to resolve this matter. Sealed Correspondence, ECF No. 30. In response, the Court ordered that "unless the parties submit final closing papers on or before February 17, 2023, the Court will dismiss the case without costs and without prejudice to the rights of any party thereto to move within thirty days thereafter to reopen if settlement has not, in fact, been consummated." Jan. 18, 2023, Order 1, ECF No. 31.

February 17, 2023, has now passed, and the parties have not submitted final closing papers. Accordingly, it is ORDERED that all of Plaintiff's claims in this case are DISMISSED without prejudice to the rights of either party to move to reopen on or before March 20, 2023, if settlement has not, in fact, been consummated.

The Clerk shall close the case.

SO ORDERED.

SIGNED this 21st day of February, 2023.

KATHARINE CARDONE
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
